

PRESS RELEASE: CROSSGATES SHOPPING CENTRE

22nd October 2014

Shock Horror at Crossgates!

To ensure everyone has one hell of a Halloween, Crossgates in Leeds is inviting shoppers to enjoy some spirited skullduggery, freaky frolics and ghostly goings on at the centre from 11am to 4pm on Friday 31st October.

There will be a FREE spooktacular Haunted House where shoppers can be transformed into marvellous monsters and gruesome ghouls, with the help of the centre's Fiendish Face Painters and Devilish Dress Up Crew.

What's more, the Scary Selfie Booth, found inside the house of horrors, will capture the results on Polaroid for people to take home and keep. These snaps will also be uploaded to Crossgates' Facebook page, where followers can vote for the scariest selfie. The picture with the most votes will win a spine-tingling £100 to spend in the centre!

Sophie Stephenson, Crossgates' Centre Manager, says: "We are delighted to be hosting an exciting event this spooky season and to be giving our customers the chance to have a day filled with treats! And with plenty of gruesome gift ideas and monster deals in our stores, there's no better place to be this month. We look forward to hosting more events and spectacular shows at Crossgates over the forthcoming months and will be offering shoppers further chances to win high-value prizes and shopping vouchers.”
